- We will endeavour to provide your children with a healthy, varied and enjoyable menu during the week. Please provide us below with any allergies or dislikes that we need to be aware of.
- We ask that all children have a well fitted hat to current Pony Club standards and recommend the wearing of Body Protectors especially when on the XC course
- We will be holding a social evening on the Wednesday when we encourage all parents and siblings to join us, food will be provided at £7 a head and we will have a licensed bar.
- We recommend your horses and ponies are vaccinated
- Food and drinks will be available to purchase throughout the camp for anybody staying to watch.
- A photographer will be in attendance on the Friday.
- Friday will consist of a mini competition, incorporating dressage showjumpng and XC, none of the phases will be compulsory but we will encourage the children to compete in all the phases.
- Prizes will be awarded for each phase as well as for the complete ODE.
- There will also be progression awards for those who improve and shine through the week.
- Adlib Haylage will be available at a charge of £10 per pony for the week.
- Shavings will be available to purchase at £8.00 per bale.
